Spanish Teacher

Trinity seeks a full-time high school Spanish teacher to begin work for the 2021-2022 school term. Qualified candidates should be comfortable teaching all levels of Spanish.

Interested candidates should have the following qualities:

- Classroom experience teaching Spanish
- Experience with employing a variety of instructional strategies to engage students’ critical thinking, including the innovative use of technology
- Understanding of multiple learning styles and ability to adapt as needed
- Engaging with and contributing to a vibrant, collaborative, and supportive group of colleagues
- Good interpersonal and communication skills
- Willingness to contribute to the school community as a club sponsor, coach, or other position working with students outside of the classroom
- Love for the subject matter

A master’s degree in Spanish or a related field, or a teaching certificate is required. The ideal candidate will have experience in a high school Spanish program and familiarity with the International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma Programme. To be successful, colleagues will have a strong personal commitment to Trinity’s mission and philosophy, seeking to challenge our students to discover their paths, develop their talents, and strengthen their character within a dynamic academic community.

Interested candidates should submit electronic copies of resume and cover letter to Lee Sprague, Associate Head of School, at lsprague@trinityes.org. Additionally, send (email or mail) copies of transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate coursework.

Trinity Episcopal School does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, or national origin in the administration of its educational, admission or employment policies, scholarship and financial aid policies or any other programs administered by the school.